The goal of Simpson County Academy is to provide for its students the best moral and educational training of which it is capable. Therefore, a student whose educational background or reputation in the community indicates such student is not of the highest caliber of who is known as a "troublemaker", drug or alcohol user, or who is not truly interested in quality education, is to be discouraged from attending SCA so as to not have a negative effect on SCA students. If a student is approved and enters SCA and then these characteristics become known, such student, at the request of school administration shall immediately withdraw from SCA.
